Batting Rally in the Fifth Inning Wins for Nationals Over Sox

Nationals Land Opening Skirmish

Chicago, with Doc White in the Box, Goes Down, 7 to 2-Bob Groom Holds the Enemy Safe. Milan Plays Sensational Ball.

By WILLIAM PEET.

With Doc White on the rubber for Chi-cago and going like a house after in the early stages, it looked as if the Nation-als yesterday would be forced to eat an-other piece of humble pie, but McAleer's henchmen jumped on the lanky dentist henchmen jumped on the linky dentist in the fifth, put him on the rack, and shocked five rune out of him. This accumulation proved enough to win the game. Final cosini. 7 to 2.

Our fellow-townsman, White, seems to be losing his curning. Time was where all he had to do was to toes his given into the box, and the Nationals were life bear, and the Nationals were.

It might be added that those ciphers in the lock and the Nationals were.

Into the box, and the Nationals were hicked before the game started.

Bobby Groom served on over for the started all right, but lost his rabbit's home felle, and Sir Robert had one of his good days. He did not hand out a simple free felcet and struck out four.
